

Have you had an opportunity to visit Mumbai? Was your itinerary planned by a tour operator and visited the major attraction of the city? And what about the night life?

Have you ever thought of itineraries beyond the plentiful proposed by the tourist offices such as the hidden Mumbai?

An important question arise "How to enter the hidden world of a mega city without a "special chaperon"

The very special attractions in Mumbai range over the city, for the sharp leisure traveller and for the businessman whose interests include the jet set life and the business contacts. Sectors precluded from approaching unless at their door knocks who is at home.

How about spending time for a drink or dinner in one of the most exclusive old British

A WAY TO DISCOVER THE HIDDEN SITES OF MUMBAY

by Mario Masciullo

patronage of important people, being herself one of them.

Despite being a person of high rank, Monica enjoys to play the role of chaperon and trade her services for people requiring special attention: being it businessmen in search of opening important contacts in style clubs and be introduced to the local business tycoons? Or attending to a vernissage of art painting and get to know the local upper middle class? The key to such doors is Monica who has a leading position in this field.

The princess has links also with the general consul for Italy Mr. Fabio Rugge, the Italian Trade Commissioner Mr. Vittorio Mecozzi, Ms Carolina Desideri of the Indian representative office of MIC-Marangoni Information Centre Mumbai.

Monica Chudasama Vaziralli, a Rajput princess, the worshipped PR lady of Mumbai who enjoy the any field of commerce or industry Bollywood included. Or for leisure travel. High class shopping, exclusive dining in the growing field of night entertainment in exclusive ambience patronised by top writers, Bollywood film stars, film producers, musicians, fashion designers and more?

At home also within the Italian jet set and close friend to the patron of Hotel Hassler of Rome. Columnists of Italian lifestyle magazines (as well as foreign press) have dedicated ample space to Monica activity in occasion of her frequent touch down in Rome and Milano..